W.P.(C).No. 20973 OF 2007

Dated this the 16th day of July, 2007

JUDGMENT

Petitioner have approached this court complaining that their service is being terminated. Their case is they were working continuously in the 2nd respondent on daily wages from 2004 onwards. They complained that some persons have been retained by the second respondent.

2. I heard learned counsel for the second respondent who points out that petitioners have an alternate remedy under Section 69(1)(c) of the Co-operative Societies Act before the Co-operative Arbitration Court dealing with non-monetary disputes. He would further submit that action was taken on the strength of the direction issued by the Registrar on 15/12/2006 and also on 09/02/2007.

I heard learned Government Pleader also. Whatever that be, in view of the fact that petitioners have an alternate remedy, I do not propose to go into the contentions of the parties. The writ petition is disposed of recording the submission of the learned Government Pleader that, if the petitioners move the Arbitration Court, a decision will be taken by the Arbitration Court without undue delay.
